Is Laughing Gas Dangerous?

Some parties, either from ignorance or from interested motives, have seen fit to assert that laughing gas is dangerous. A very slight acquaintance with the nature of the article, a very little scientific knowledge will show how utterly absurd the statement is. They might with more accuracy charge that the atmosphere we breathe every day is dangerous, for it is composed of precisely the same constituents—nitrogen and oxygen—as is Laughing Gas, the difference being that the proportion of the component upon which we depend for existence, oxygen, is greater in the Laughing Gas than in the atmosphere we breathe. Atmospheric air consists of four-fifths nitrogen, which will not sustain life, and one fifth oxygen, without which we could not live. Every one acquainted with chemistry knows this to be correct, and no one claiming scientific knowledge will have any fear in relation to the use of nitrous oxide gas. It does not require a medical diploma to convince one, with these facts before him, to judge if Laughing Gas, composed of the same components as the atmosphere, and having the vital principle in more than twice the proportion the atmosphere has, is dangerous. The fact is, it exerts a decidedly beneficial influence upon the system, which is felt in the exhilarating effects which follow its use, and is only paralleled by the buoyancy of spirits one enjoys in a high state of health.

For the years past Dr. G. W. Spencer has been administering Laughing Gas to persons afflicted with tooth-ache, but dreading the pain of having their teeth drawn, as if he has pulled most with the real intention. Why who will not be afflicted with the toothache, if all need to have a tooth extracted, go to Dr. Spencer's Dental Establishment, No. 26 Fifth street, the largest and best fitted in the city, and take the Laughing Gas and have us free for the asking. The Doctor, besides being a good dentist, is a thoroughly gentlemanly man, with order his hands, and could desire nothing more than to be treated.

The Queen of the Wash Tub.

The demand for the Queen of the Wash Tub is the only one not perfectly satisfactory to the manufacturers. Such unanimity and it is impossible to meet it. Every one who has used it for three or more years, better than we have used it for one, is now using it. Every one who has used it for one year is using it. Every one who has used it for six months is using it. Every one who has used it for three months is using it. Every one who has used it for one month is using it. The Daily Commercial

SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1868.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that runs the Telegraph Herald, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

As proof of the accurate placed on the market reports of the Commercial, we will state that they are regularly copied by the New York Economist, Shipping List, Iron Age, and other papers of like character in that and other cities, and that leading Eastern commercial papers and circulars regularly receive them each week. There is either the two hundred miles, hardly an Iron Factory, Oil Refinery, or leading manufactory of any kind that is not a subscriber to the Commercial, principally because its reports are the only full and reliable ones of the Pittsburgh market.

CROP AND FREIT PROSPECT.

Our friends everywhere will confer a favor by writing us briefly concerning the grain and fruit prospect, and the farming and business prospect generally. We shall be obliged for any item of local interest that may be within their knowledge.

THE impeachment trial progresses with as much dispatch as could be looked. The Managers hope to have all their testimony in to-day. It is difficult to see why the case should last longer than ten days more.

THE Registry Law for the whole State passed the Senate yesterday, and will go to the Governor for his approval—which it will receive. It is one of the most important bills of the session, and all who desire to see the ballot box kept pure, will thank the Legislature for passing it.

THE Free Railroad bill having been amended to obviate the objections of the Governor, and it having been passed by both branches of the Legislature, the question is disposed of for the present session. Though not what was desired the bill is a great step forward.

In the Senate yesterday the vote was taken on the contested seat question, and decided in favor of Mr. Rousson, the Republican contestant, who, on taking the oath, proceeded to occupy the seat which up to that time had been occupied by Mr. Buchanan. The case was decided by a party vote; although the testimony showed beyond a doubt that Mr. Rousson was legally elected.

Of late years Mr. WADE has not judged wisely. The time was when he knew the people and went to them for instruction. He was seldom wrong then. But having limited his observation and association to the narrow circles of selfish politicians—and they not the best of their kind—he is seldom right.

THE Republican victory in Rhode Island this week is another indication of the determination of the country to fight the battle through to the end. Occurring, like the New Hampshire election, when every indication as to the working of the popular mind was watchfully regarded, and when any change would have had an extraordinary significance, the result has the importance of a skirmish, with decisive results, preliminary to a battle. It shows, furthermore, that the people stand steadily by Congress, and that "they, too, impeach Andrew Johnson."

In the New York Assembly, the Hon. Mr. GRANT has charged directly and specifically that the report on the Erie Railway bill was bought with money; that a portion of the votes on the floor adopting said report were bought; that members of the House have been engaged in buying their fellow members; that some of the committee charge for their reports; and that corruption prevails generally in the Legislature. This certainly is a lamentable state of things, and very damaging to the fame of New York, and the reputation of the members of the Legislature thereof. But here in Pennsylvania, we are comforted with the thought that nothing of the sort ever takes place in our Legislature.

BALTIMORE, not content with two Express steamship lines, has projected another to sail from there. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, through whose instrumentality the Bremen line was started, are at the foot of the Bremen line. They are the substantial strength, also, of the steam lines plying to Cuba and to New Orleans. Jones & Hoffman have offered to build the first ship at his own expense, costing about $200,000, and the railroad company will back him with other vessels. Will not Philadelphia take the hint, and quietly suggest to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that the example of the Baltimore and Ohio Company is worthy of imitation?

THE Arkansas Constitution appears to have been carried by a small majority, although the returns are yet incomplete. The instrument is said to embody many liberal and progressive features, and its adoption marks a new era in the history of the State. Arkansas will be among the first to resume her proper place in the family of States. The contest was an exciting one, with much bitterness on both sides. Up to the close and some days after, the opposition were confident; but the returns have dispelled the delusion. A letter from Hon. E. F. Rice, chairman of the Republican State Committee, says the majority will be about sixteen hundred and fifty. He says:

> "While I am writing, the second people are [illegible] the streets with cards of victory. You may not [illegible] the enthusiasm [illegible] the election, as we were in [illegible] from one of our candidates, who cannot identify himself with [illegible]."

A STORY has been brought to light which is likely to materially assist Gov. SEYMOUR, of New York, to the Democratic Presidential nomination. It is that Judge ROSEBOOM, Gov. SEYMOUR visited New York and there met the Hon. CHARLES H. RICHARD, of Poughkeepsie, of whom he asked, "Judge, have you read the Confederate Constitution (then recently published)?" "No," replied Judge R., "I have glanced over it, but not read it attentively." "Well," rejoined Gov. S., "I have read it carefully; and it is a better framework of government than our (Federal) Constitution. Now, why not call all our troubles by simply adopting that (Confederate) Constitution?" Mr. SEYMOUR has not thought best, though he has had time enough, to deny the accuracy of the report of the conversation, and it is presumed that he regards it as so much personal capital; and it ought to insure him the united support of his "southern brethren." However that may be, he is aware that a denial from him would be followed by proof of the entire accuracy of the statement.

TAYLOR'S WORLD-RENOWNED MUSEUM AND MENAGERIE OF LIVING ANIMALS, the largest and most complete Traveling Menagerie in the world, will exhibit in Pittsburgh, commencing on Monday, April 6th, and continuing one week only. Admission 25 cents. Children under 10 years of age, 15 cents. Doors open from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M. Performances commence at 2 and 7½ P. M. Admission to Reserved Seats, 50 cents extra. Reserved Seats can be secured at the Box Office, on the ground, on the day of exhibition.

Of all the members of the Cabinet, Mr. MCCULLOCH has been and is still Mr. JOHNSON'S favorite. They work together. Commissioner ROGERS makes oath that millions of frauds are lost annually by the dismissal of good and the appointment of bad men to office in that Department. Mr. ROGERS has exposed the wrong, protested against it, and four hundred have been dismissed. The fact of its existence is as well known to the Secretary as the Commissioner. The Secretary's relations with the President prompted that he has to [illegible] with him, and could, if he were so disposed, position a reform. But we do not remember to have seen a line showing that he has done anything to produce a reformation or that he even desires to see it done. Since Mr. MCCULLOCH'S "there and there" there may be a difference of opinion, but in respect to this, among more than opposition is to be found, there can be none. The South, on the contrary, reaching back directly to the Supplement, are the smarks of the nation it must and

OUR CHURCHES.

Denominational and Personal.

THE CHURCH AT HOME.—Some of the most conference prayer and worship in the city is found Richmond Church, corner of Liberty and Seventh streets, Rev. Mr. Wagoner, pastor. The order of exercises is somewhat different from most protestant churches, consisting of singing, a brief and simple prayer, reading of the Scriptures and an intelligent and instructive address. The Church is well filled with attentive worshippers, and the services are conducted in the solemn manner of the earnest Christian.

REV. MR. WATSON'S.—The Rev. J. C. Ogle, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Steubenville, Ohio, will preach to-morrow morning and evening in the Methodist Church, on Fifth street, above Smithfield, in connection with the pastor. The action of the Steubenville Conference will be considered by the Quarterly Conference of the Church, which will be held in Steubenville during the past winter. He is an able preacher.

THIRD PRESBYTERIAN.—The question of size for the Third Church congregation, or south street, is rapidly approaching completion. It will be one of the most elegant structures in the State, and an ornament to the city. The new lot, on Ross, Wood, Diamond and Third streets, is in a most desirable locality, in the midst of the people but in the quietest part of the business community at large. The church will be built with a view to the comfort and convenience of the congregation, securing the best attendance in the auditorium, ensuring perfect ventilation and easy access to the pews. Ample room is to be given to the congregation worship in the basement, and the whole will be completed in the best manner. The cost will be about $100,000.

GOSPEL MEETINGS.—The Pleasants Congregation (corner Church, Ross and Diamond streets, Allegheny), and the Second Church, Penn avenue, Pittsburgh, have united in holding gospel meetings in the Second Church, Penn avenue, Pittsburgh, every evening this week. Prayer meeting at 10 o'clock A. M. Preaching at 3 P. M. and 7½ P. M. Rev. Mr. Kennedy, pastor of the Second Church, will preach this evening. The meetings are conducted by the pastors of the two churches, assisted by other ministers and brethren. The meetings are well attended, and are of a very interesting character.

TTSBURGH AND NEWBERY.

...ile of the Proposed Railroad Portion... of the Soil and Wealth to Wareeste ... the Country through which it is ... Facts for Pittsburgh Capitalists.

PARKERSBURG, FAYETTE COUNTY, Pa., March 27, 1868.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

...see in your paper of March 21, a letter ... C. W. Dougherty, showing up to the in... terests of Western Pennsylvania the utility ... great advantage (especially to the city of ... Pittsburgh) of a direct communication con... necting the North and South, by means of a ... road leading from Pittsburgh to Newberry, ... situated on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad, ... Pulaski county, Virginia. Mr. Dougherty is ... right when he says the prospect is sufficiently ... alluring to enlist not only the money of the ... capitalists, but the enterprise of the ... manufacturers of Pittsburgh, and I will add all ... others Pennsylvanians. There is no difficulty ... in this route. It has a natural grade to Farmington along the Monongahela river, passing a flourishing towns of Monongahela City, ... Centreville, Waynesburgh, etc., thence a natural ... grade of the Fayette Valley river to the Mingo ... ridge in Randolph county, passing Fraserstown, ... Millpit, Bowers, and Huttonsville; thence, ... over a table land of five miles to Gauley's ... Spring, then a water grade of fifteen or ... twenty miles, then crossing another table land ... of three to five miles to Stony creek, a tributary of Greenbrier, passing on the route Bartonsville, Wilmoth, Frankfort, White Sulphur ... Springs, and Lewisburg, to Falconer, leaving ... the Greenbrier river, cutting across a corner of ... Monroe county, tapping the New river at or ... near Peck's Ferry, passing on the route Union ... to the Point, Grave Sulphur Spring, and Centreville Station on New river, passing the Salt ... works and Fosster Banks, to Newberry.

So far as tunnelling, cutting and filling is concerned it would be an easy undertaking, when compared with the leveling of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad or the Pennsylvania Central, simply because there are comparatively ... no mountains or table-lands to cross. All that ... is necessary for me to say about the richness and fertility of the country through which the proposed road would pass is to state the undeniable fact that Beverly, in Randolph county, to Newberry, in Pulaski county, is the very best ... of limestone land, save here and there a narrow belt of limestone. From the mountains on the east and West of the proposed town, there is limestone to now their summit, like grass ... being the natural grass of the country.

It would be unnecessary for me to say here to recount the vast amounts of mineral and agricultural productions of Monongalia, Marion, Taylor and Barbour counties, that would naturally flow to the city of Pittsburgh. Passing on to Randolph county, the road would naturally follow the base of the Cheat Mountain, said mountain being from three to four miles to the summit, the top of which is comparatively level, and from ten to fifteen miles wide. This is densely covered with pine, ... which seldom fails to harvest and remain the ... traveler of the colors of Lebanon, for excelling any forest I ever saw for timber and shingles, equalling if not surpassing even the best yellow ... pine. The breath of this forest I am unable to describe, but suffice it to say, it would be ... ing fifty miles, through which the Cheat river flows in dark and colored waters, susceptible of driving any amount of machinery. The forests in all other accessible parts, having the grand ... lake from Fellowsburg to Station passing through it.

Passing thence up the Tygart's Valley river, twenty miles brings us to the Kings Face. We then come to another forest, through which the road would pass for twenty miles, covered with black walnut, wild cherry, yellow poplar, white ash and yellow pine, growing in a rich limestone soil. Then comes a plateau of ... ground for twenty miles in length, over which the cattle roam and graze and I will ... say that they are unsurpassed by any in Bath county, Kentucky.) Fine horses and mules were also raised there in abundance, but during the war they were either killed or appropriated. As a grain growing country it is unsurpassed by any portion of the South. It is ... unnecessary to refer more than ... will meet home consumption for the want of an internal improvement. They are ... compelled to raise something capable of transporting itself to market on its own hoofs. In the vicinity is situated the renowned White Sulphur Springs, the Blue Sulphur, the Gray Sulphur, the Green Sulphur, the Sweet and the Old Sweet Sulphur, the healing, the hot, the warm and the cold springs. These springs possess a medical power or virtue for healing the various diseases incident to the human family that would astonish all who are not acquainted with their utility. The proprietors of the above named Springs have accommodations for from eight thousand persons, and are prepared to accommodate several thousand more at the same time. In 1859 the White Sulphur was sold to Allen T. Caperton and others for one million dollars. And in this estimate were not ... are value of inexhaustible iron ore, not counted by the inch as we count feet, but by the foot, and from fifteen to twenty feet of iron to range from one to one hundred pounds and upwards.

We then pass on through Monroe county, which possesses all the advantages of ... former in a richness of soil, possessing a ... portion of minerals and mineral springs, ... blooded cattle, horses and mules. Those coming to the New river the nearest and best ... landing either at the mouth of Gauley river, ... Kanawha, making the shortest route to the ... to get into shape for market, and is ... transportation thither. Then comes the salt-works, producing a salt unsurpassed in flavor ... and strength by the best known brand of world. Next comes the plaster banks, of which I need not speak, for every publisher and thinking ... ... of a fertilizer. Taking ... as the standpoint, ... the county seat of Greenbrier county) for one hundred miles east, west, north, or south, there are but three furnaces, and they were used up by the war; one burned, a small one, the ... wrought iron factories combined having but one ... no forge, no rolling mill, no nail mill, ... no glass factory, no paper mill, no planing mill, one planter, no bloom factory and but limited ... mills.

Now all that I have said would be but a mere shadow compared with the immense riches that would open up from the seven Southern states that would be accessible, if Pittsburgh would ... a cut another iron ore and grasp the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad at or near Newberry.

CITY MATTERS.

City Councils will be held next Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Mechanic Fire Engine Company will meet this evening at their engine house, on Fifth avenue, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

At a meeting of Mayor Wilson's Police Committee, yesterday afternoon, communications were received from Chief Bidwell, and Captains Muse and Hamilton, in relation to the police force of the city. The Chief recommended the appointment of fifteen additional men, and the dismissal of Officer Hamilton, for neglect of duty. The communications were referred to the Committee on Police.

Fourth Ward Items.—Mayor Wilson, Chief Bidwell, and Captain Muse, visited the Fourth ward, yesterday afternoon, and made a thorough inspection of the premises in the neighborhood of Penn and Cherry streets, where the recent fire occurred. The Mayor and Chief Bidwell have determined to have the locality thoroughly cleaned, and the nuisances abated.

Mayor Wilson has received a petition from the citizens of the Fourth ward, asking the appointment of Mr. Wm. Wilson, as Constable of that ward. The petition is numerously signed, and the Mayor will probably make the appointment.

Mr. Wilson, who is a brother of Mr. Thomas Wilson, the present Constable, has been a resident of the Fourth ward for many years, and is well known to the citizens. He is a man of good character, and is highly spoken of by those who know him.

Mr. Wilson has been a member of the Fire Department for many years, and is at present a member of the Mechanic Fire Engine Company. He is also a member of the Fourth Ward Republican Club, and is a warm supporter of the principles of the party.

Mr. Wilson's appointment will be a popular one, and will give general satisfaction.
